

CFRC can put you into the right teaching job. Right now!

www.iteachnursing.org

The Centralized Faculty Resource Center, the second Bay Area Nursing Resource Center service, is designed for nursing faculty and nurses interested in teaching, both in clinical and classroom settings.

Learn about our resources.

The Centralized Faculty Resource Center can help you:

- Learn requirements for various levels of instruction – there's a good chance you can teach!
- Find faculty positions, in both clinical and classroom settings
- Build and share online resumes
- Review career resource links and best practice models

Register today on www.iteachnursing.org.

It's easy! Click Register in the top right-hand corner and complete registration fields.

Create your online resume and begin reviewing available positions.

1. Go to My Resume from the Faculty Candidate pull-down and complete the resume fields.
2. Click View Jobs from the Faculty Candidate pull-down.
3. Click View to the right of the job(s) that interest you to find more details. Click Send Email at the top of the page to send a note expressing interest.

Several schools have already posted open positions, and new postings are made regularly.

Have questions? Need help?

Contact us at cfrchelp@BayAreaNRC.org.

Learn more about us at www.BayAreaNRC.org.